Rescue Squad Fund Drive

The Rescue Squad has announced that the annual drive for the Ambulance Club will be made between March 1 and March 15. A committee of volunteer workers, headed by Joe D'Agostino and Elizabeth Iseli, is planning to contact every family in the city in order to achieve 100% membership. The membership fee of $2 which is asked of every family entitles each member of the family to emergency transportation as many times as necessary during the year. In addition, routine or non-emergency transportation within the Annapolis-Baltimore-Washington area is available to members, if arranged for in advance. Such service may be arranged for non-members on a mileage basis.

Enrollment during this drive entitles member-families to these services from March 1, through February 29, 1956.

GCS Board Opposes Labor Legislation

The board of directors of Greenbelt Consumer Services at its last meeting voted to oppose "right to work" legislation which will soon be introduced in the Maryland legislature.

The board action followed a report by Lawrence Oosterhous, vice president of GCS and GCS representative on the board of directors of the Potomac Cooperative Federation. Oosterhous stated that the Federation board had unanimously voted its opposition to the proposed law and had urged local cooperatives in Maryland to take similar action. The proposed law, he declared, would outlaw the union shop and the closed shop in Maryland, is supported by the National Association of Manufacturers and some local businesses, and is opposed by labor unions.

Arguments advanced against the proposed legislation included the importance of the union shop and the closed shop to the development of unions; the importance of unions in working as co-ops do for the wider distribution of goods and services, the support which unions have given to co-ops nationally and locally, and the fact that unions are in substance producer cooperatives—producers democratically organized to sell their services. Those opposed to the board's action maintained that cooperatives should not take positions on matters not directly related to the co-op.

Also considered at the board meeting was a proposal that GCS withdraw from membership in the Potomac Cooperative Federation. This motion was tabled with the understanding that the Federation would call in a qualified consultant to examine and make recommendations concerning its organization and program. Subsequent to the GCS board's action, the Federation has written to the Farm Bureau Insurance Companies requesting the services of Dick Carlson, a consultant of national standing who has advised the GCS board.

Intermediate Take Severna Park 32-23

Coach Bill Moore's Intermediates are continuing their winning ways by defeating Severna Park last week to the tune of 32-23. It was one of the hardest fought games of the season with Greenbelt coming from behind in the last six minutes to overcome a deficit of 20-15. High man for the game was Wes Hogan with 9 points, closely followed by Bobby McGlothlin with 7.

Annual Banquet Honors Coaches Here

By Bob Halpin

This Saturday evening, at 7 p.m. in the Greenbelt Community Church, the First Annual Coaches Club Banquet will be held. The many people who unselfishly contributed their time and talents in sports to the youth and adults of our community will be recognized.

Rev. Eric Braund will preside as Toastmaster and Vocalist Edna White, accompanied by Elizabeth Goetz will entertain with a few selections during the evening.

The idea of such an event was conceived by Chester Speziale and given impetus by the enthusiastic support of Ben Goldfaden, Bernie Emmert, Chuck Link and a host of other supporters. However, this banquet is open to all who wish to attend and lend their support, to insure the continuance of such an annual dinner.

The feature of the evening will be the presentation of trophies for "Coach of the Year" in Greenbelt for 1954. Another trophy for the "Greenbelt Athlete for 1954," donated by the Greenbelt Recreation Department; and the third - to the man who has contributed the most to the "Youth of Greenbelt in Sports for 1954" donated by the Greenbelt Little League.

Many local organizations have had teams engaged in various forms of competition from which they have derived trophies. We hope to have these all on display as a backdrop for the head banquet table. Any organization that has not yet been contacted is urged to call Chet Speziale or Bob Halpin for arrangements. These trophies will be most carefully guarded.

Organizations should endeavor to participate in an event of this kind and your support is solicited. Too many potential volunteer workers are lost to the activities of this city merely by their lack of knowing who is running the many adult and youth programs available to them in Greenbelt.

Through the efforts of this group of men behind this First Annual Banquet, the opportunity is presented to you to come and enjoy a wonderful dinner and entertaining program and to meet the many leaders of these athletic organizations and activities.

Be seeing you at the First Annual!

Center PTA Discusses School Budget Tuesday

An opportunity to learn about the proposed school budget of Prince Georges County for 1955-56 will be offered at the February meeting of the Center School Parent-Teachers Association next Tuesday evening, February 15, at 8:30 sharp, in the center school auditorium.

Honor guest of the meeting will be Mrs. Louise D. Yuill, member of the Board of Education of Prince Georges County.

The meeting is planned as a study group, with Mrs. Yuill and other resource people present to answer questions. Program Chairman Morris Solomon, who attended the recent County Council PTA meeting at which School Superintendent William S. Schmidt presented the budget, will lead off with a review of the highlights of the budget.

Solomon told the News Review that he hopes a large group will participate in this meeting and that it is not limited to PTA members. "All citizens have a real stake in the educational system of our county and informed citizens can work effectively for its improvement."

Refreshments and time for conversation will follow the meeting.

City Council Moves To Check Litter, Seeks Increase In Bus Fare Rates

By Glenn Burrows

The city council passed an amendment designed to put "teeth" into the city's ordinance against public littering at its regular meeting Monday night. The amendment provides, as does the original ordinance, for a penalty up to $25 for failure to comply; however, the hope was expressed that citizens would voluntarily conform to the new requirements without waiting for official notice to do so. The amendment provides:

Amendment

It shall be unlawful to litter the streets, walks, parking areas, recreation areas, or other public or semi-public areas by discarding, dropping or spilling thereon or there in any paper, boxes, cans, bottles, refuse, trash, garbage, trimmings from lawns, hedges, shrubs or trees, or any fuel oil in the servicing of tanks, or lubricating oil in the servicing or repair of motor vehicles, or any other materials of similar nature, and that all said trash, garbage, trimmings and other materials shall be deposited in receptacles provided for them according to rules and regulations pertaining to the collection and disposal of all waste material as set forth below:

(a) It shall be unlawful to accumulate or store in open view to the public any brush, trash, building materials or any waste material from building or remodeling operations or any debris, any packing boxes, rubber tires, tubes, automobile parts, disabled or unlicensed motor or other vehicles, trailers and the like; and

(b) All regular garbage and trash shall be placed in metal containers with tight-fitting lids, the size not to exceed 24 gallons; and where closets or ground receptacles are provided, the cans shall be kept in same until the day of collection; containers shall be kept in a clean, safe and sanitary condition, and any container designated unsafe or unsanitary shall be replaced at once; garbage, sweeper dust, and small scraps shall be wrapped in paper before being placed in containers to prevent the scattering or littering of lawns when containers are emptied by the collectors. Hedge clippings, grass, leaves, branches, etc. shall be placed in sacks or other containers in plain view of collectors. Tree trimmings, packing boxes, large cartons or similar materials shall be reduced in size and tied in bundles not over four feet long and two feet in diameter. Discarded furniture, mattresses, etc. will be collected on special pick-ups when the city office is notified that such articles are ready for disposal. The placing of trash or debris of any kind in any public area shall be considered littering, and is a violation of this ordinance.

(c) Adequate storage closets for metal containers and other trash shall be provided at all commercial establishments; said closets shall be kept in good repair with waterproof roof and locked doors or lids, to prevent entry by unauthorized persons.

Other items of interest were: (1) Council adopted Robert Hurst's proposal for a Citizens' Recreation Advisory Committee to be composed of 5 members to be chosen from among nominees proposed by individual councilmen, each councilman being permitted to suggest but one nominee. The 5 members of the committee would each serve for 1 year. The committee, obligated to meet a minimum of once each month, is to function as an advisory group to the city manager, the city council and the recreation director. Hurst expressed the hope that through the activities of such a committee the city recreation program might be extended to include more adult activities. Ben Goldfaden pointed out that such a committee was required for county par-

Credit Union Elects Board, Committeemen

At the annual meeting of the Greenbelt Federal Credit Union on Wednesday, January 19, the following directors and committee members were elected: Board of Directors—Joseph Comproni, Carl Eubank, Joseph Fitzmaurice, Albert Folkman, Frank Perazoli, Lester Olson, and Joseph O'Neill; Credit Committee—James Beck, Bernard Sisco, and Waldo Tastet; Supervisory Committee—Edward Kaighn, Edward Link, and Mrs. Teresa Schumaker.

The members heard a report of the past year's operations by President Perazoli and reviewed the financial and statistical reports presented by Treasurer Comproni. A plan which the Board of Directors had been considering to liberalize and lengthen the terms of payment on certain preferred types of loans received general approval.

A dividend of 3 1/4% was voted on shares held during the year 1954.

The Board of Directors met later and elected the following officers for the coming year: Carl Eubank, president; Joseph O'Neill, vice president; Joseph Comproni, treasurer; and Lester Olson, secretary. Albert Folkman is the collection manager.

Suburban Trust Moves Up

News has just been released from national authorities that the Suburban Trust Company now ranks 252nd in the 15,000 banks of the country. The Suburban Trust has thus advanced 53 points in rank during the past year as last year it was in 305th position.

Furthermore, it may be pointed out that Suburban Trust ranks as the largest bank in Maryland outside of Baltimore. It ranks fourth in relation to the banks in Washington and seventh in the whole state of Maryland including Baltimore.

Tribute To The Chief

Greenbelt can be proud of the selection of George Panagoulis as the new county chief of police. His record in Greenbelt as police chief is marked by integrity, honesty and hard work. Much of his real work in Greenbelt is not known by the average citizen, since a great deal of police work in this community is on a social service basis. Panagoulis has demonstrated a keen aptitude for consideration of the human element in his duties and the rewards for Greenbelt have been immeasurable. Ironically, the same low crime rate that is largely a result of Panagoulis's efforts has been called to his attention as indicating a "soft" job. But actually, our low crime rate is a tribute to his abilities.

He leaves his job in Greenbelt, along with former mayor Frank Lastner, to apply his talents on a larger field—the county. He got the job on his merits alone; he was the best qualified of all the candidates proposed for the position. We know that he will continue his efforts to protect the public safety and welfare with the same qualities he exhibited so ably in Greenbelt. We wish him luck and our best wishes. And thanks for a job well done in Greenbelt.

LIBRARY REPORT

The Greenbelt City Library has reported its circulation and attendance figures for January, '55. 3,877 books circulated for home use, and the library was visited by 3,207 persons during this month. This in a community of 7,000!

Our Neighbor

By Marian Hatton - 3251

Many friends and relatives from Greenbelt and out of town helped Mr. and Mrs. Leo Gerton of 18-U Ridge celebrate their daughters' joint birthday on February 6. The lucky girls are Janet Sue, who was nine, and Nancy Lynn, who was six.

Happy to hear that Chris Cranford of 4-R Gardenway, who was stricken with appendicitis while at school, is now recuperating nicely.

The Hal Silvers have just moved to 25-A Ridge. Their new phone number is 5676.

Meet your friends and neighbors every Monday at 8:30 p.m. in room 201 Center School to have a whale of a good time. Al Herling directs the JCC sponsored Community Chorus in classical, semi-classical and popular pieces. You don't have to be a Lily Pons, and it doesn't cost a penny. So if you're looking for fun and relaxation (particularly you men!), come down and you won't be disappointed.

The Al Skolnicks of 45-P Ridge have a new phone number. GRanite 4-7586.

To save a million phone calls, Ethel Nusinov would like to announce that her sister Annie Spivack of Long Island has had a baby boy. Ethel is leaving Sunday to see her newest nephew and his three joyful sisters.

There's a baby boy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Kraeski of 38-E Crescent who arrived via Prince Georges General Hospital.

On Wednesday the cherubs of Mrs. Sawtelle and Mrs. Ravitz's first grade classes in the Center School went on an excursion into Washington to see the Indian Exhibit at the Smithsonian Institute. Lunches were brought from home, which were eaten on the bus at the end of the visit to the museum. A snack of juice and cookies held them until the late lunch, and it was all very gay. The same number of children were returned to the school at two o'clock as had started out, thanks to the alert vigilance of the teachers and the eight mothers who went along. It was a very successful trip and the children had a lot of fun adding to their knowledge of the American Indian.

GREENBELT NEWS REVIEW

Three

New Horizons

The second exit south of Greenbelt marked "Bladensburg - U. S. 50" on the new Washington-Baltimore Parkway brings Greenbelters close to a new and varied shopping center on Annapolis Road just beyond Bladensburg High School.

Our reporter traveling at 35 miles an hour (and who else goes out at that clip!) reached the Prince Georges Shopping Area in 9½ minutes flat. This non-stop, no traffic-light, scenic route makes this area the closest to get to outside of our own shopping center.

The News-Review wishes to welcome to its roster of advertisers two of the shops from this area - Royal Delicatessen and Saks Mens Wear. We suggest Greenbelters get down there this week-end and let our advertisers know that you "saw it in the News-Review."

Whether new or old, patronize our advertisers. We need their revenue to keep our paper going. They need your patronage.

May we suggest that everyone in Greenbelt consider advertising in your home-town newspaper, the Greenbelt News Review, so that it may grow into a bigger and better newspaper to benefit us all.

NO DOUBT?

To the Editor:

Last week's issue reported the paper's plan under which all members of GVHC would receive your paper and have 25c a month added to their monthly payments. This clearly would be involuntary for many members. That your paper should suggest that GVHC members be involuntarily forced to pay for your paper through their GVHC monthly payments is amazing. Such suggestion is consistent only with principles of totalitarianism inherent in the philosophy and practice of socialism and communism. GVHC can charge its members only for those things which they have by contract agreed to pay. GVHC has no more right to force its members to buy your paper than it can force them to pay for life insurance, group medical and hospital care, food-freezer plans, aid to the Babylonians, etc. The suggestion is immoral, illegal, would be a taking of others' property which GVHC has no right to take. It is illegal, because the law would not permit it. It is un-American, because it violates fundamental American principles of liberty. It would be no different than the practice of gangsters and extortioners taking the property of others by force. (I hope that the foregoing will help the authors of the suggestion to understand why it is not acceptable.)

Your newspaper is not only guilty of all the indictments you made against it, but of many more, including printing attacks on individuals and refusing to print the reply there to. Unless it genuinely reforms and practices fairness and objectiveness, it cannot expect to receive the support of the community. Unless it so reforms, it deserves to die, and quickly.

My Daze

FOR THREE WEEKS the GCS stores have had the schoolchildren's clean-up pictures on display. Center School, North End and St. Hugh Schools were all represented in about a dozen pictures apiece. It was a very meaningful project for the schools. Mrs. Grimm, principal of the North End School, felt that the children were getting a lot out of working on a community problem like clean-up. The pictures themselves were delightful. I thought. The McGee sisters, Barbara and Kathleen, of the North End School, did very skillful drawings. It was the younger one, I think, Kathleen, who drew the one about Teddy Bear Town: "Even in Teddy Bear Town, You Go Back Where You Came From If You Throw Litter Around." And then another child drew one of a dog burying his bone, and the title of that one was, something, even he's helping to keep Greenbelt clean. Another one showed "My Brother and I Cleaning Up." Some drawings were worthy of architects or engineers. We certainly couldn't draw like that twenty-five years ago. At least I don't remember.

OUR FIRST GRADE girl was so proud the day the teacher gave her a book with WORDS in it, and she's been reading words ever since. I guess everything's possible. Her mother and father were at least as proud as she.

I WONDER WHAT MOTHER CAN REALLY stay calm and patient when after bundling up her little one with all the clothes and accessories she thinks necessary for the rugged Greenbelt outdoors (and this will make Marian Hatton's Canadian sister snicker!) he changes his mind about going out, or decides he has to go up to the bathroom.

ticipation in the city's recreation program.

(2) Faced with an anticipated $3000 annual deficit in the city bus operation city manager Charles McDonald requested authority to seek from P.U.C. a fare increase from 10c to 15c for adults and from 5c to 8c for children. Goldfaden opposed requesting a fare increase for children. His motion to grant McDonald the authority to request the 15c adult fare was passed.

(3) McDonald, on the advice of a bonding attorney, recommended against the floating of bonds at this time for the purpose of financing additional public works to be required by an expanding Greenbelt. He pointed out, however, that a provision in the 1954 federal housing bill (Public law 560) made available to qualifying municipalities under 25,000 population advance payments in amounts not to exceed $10,000 for the purpose of planning public works. Any such funds advanced by the federal government would have to be repaid only if the planned public works were actually carried out. McDonald added that such planning would necessarily be done so that any repayment of any advanced funds would not constitute double expenditures.

(4) The Council supported McDonald who favored the owner's request, forwarded by the Maryland Park and Planning Commission, to change from residential to heavy commercial the zoning of 91 acres east of and adjacent to the B and O railroad and north of Smith's gravel pit and a change from residential to light commercial of 81 acres east of and adjacent to the 92 acre tract. Both tracts are to be bounded on the north by the Inner-county Belt Freeway.
